

Modern Coach Factory, Raebareli

Press Release

Date: 11.05.2019

National Technology day celebrations were organised in the main Conference Hall of MCF on 11th May 2019 with an objective to share technical Knowledge, to introduce new technologies in Coach manufacturing and to improve passenger amenities, safety and security.

The Day is celebrated to commemorate Pokharan-II Nuclear test conducted on 11th May 1998 and since then called National Technology Day.

The program was presided over by PCME Anoop Kumar in which use of globally available modern technologies in coach manufacture were presented. Presentations were given by Sr. Business Consultant Simulia Kiran Kumar, Sales Manager ESI software Bangalore Sourabh Agarwal, Entuple Technologies prabodh Shukla, Regional Technical Manager Design Tech Abhijeet Kulkarni, Control Infotech Bangalore Nagraj, Simens India Shivendra Bansotra, CEO A Paul Instrument New Delhi Pawandeep Singh and Perpetuum, UK Achyut Pai, who focused on techniques to improve coach quality, passenger amenities and security.

The program was also attended by CAO Alok Kumar, PCMM Shreekant Rai, PCEE S.K. Agarwal, PCE R.B. Yadav, CDE Indrajeet Singh officers and supervisors of MCF.

(R.P.Sharma) 11/5

Chief Public Relation Officer